

HIRING OF CONTRACT ADMINISTRATORS

Hiring Process for Contract Administrators

The hiring of contract administrators is one of the most important functions of an educational institution. The process shall be pursued with clearly defined procedures that ensure the selection of successful, capable, and effective contract administrators who contribute to the institution as a whole and fulfill the responsibilities included in the job description.

The hiring process must facilitate the selection of contract administrators who possess the following characteristics:

1. demonstrated leadership qualities and expertise in their area of responsibility;
2. demonstrated commitment to shared governance;
3. demonstrated understanding of the importance of and commitment to diversity; and
4. preparation by training and temperament to respond effectively to educational needs of the populations served by the District.

The hiring process will reflect staff participation and input. Recognizing that the responsibility for selecting well-qualified contract administrators is shared cooperatively, the administration, faculty, staff, and students will participate effectively and appropriately in the hiring process.

Screening and Interview Committee

Screening and interview committees should represent substantial diversity. To ensure overall diversity, one or more constituent groups may be required to propose additional committee members from those originally proposed through an iterative process.
