Sheet Notes

1. Adequate and proper signs at all locations of hazardous materials shall be posted.
2. Adequate and proper signs at all locations of hazardous materials shall be posted.
3. Adequate and proper signs at all locations of hazardous materials shall be posted.
4. Adequate and proper signs at all locations of hazardous materials shall be posted.

Hazardous Material Notes

A. The general notes affect all hazardous materials and shall be adhered to as referenced on each hazardous materials abatement plan.

B. The hazardous materials treatment areas include the following: those materials that are listed under the local or national regulations, and those that are specifically excluded from the regulations. The treatment areas shall be identified as such on the hazardous materials abatement plan.

C. The warning signs for hazardous materials treatment areas shall be located at the entrance to the treatment area and shall be visible from a distance of 50 feet.

D. The treatment areas shall be enclosed with a fence, and the fence shall be marked with a warning sign.

E. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a exhaust system, and the exhaust system shall be capable of removing all hazardous materials from the treatment area.

F. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a washing station, and the washing station shall be capable of removing all hazardous materials from the treatment area.

G. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a decontamination station, and the decontamination station shall be capable of removing all hazardous materials from the treatment area.

H. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a disposal station, and the disposal station shall be capable of disposing of all hazardous materials in an environmentally safe manner.

I. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a monitoring station, and the monitoring station shall be capable of monitoring the treatment area for hazardous materials.

J. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a training station, and the training station shall be capable of training workers on the proper handling and disposal of hazardous materials.

K. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a documentation station, and the documentation station shall be capable of documenting the handling and disposal of hazardous materials.

L. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a decontamination station, and the decontamination station shall be capable of removing all hazardous materials from the treatment area.

M. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a decontamination station, and the decontamination station shall be capable of removing all hazardous materials from the treatment area.

N. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a decontamination station, and the decontamination station shall be capable of removing all hazardous materials from the treatment area.

O. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a decontamination station, and the decontamination station shall be capable of removing all hazardous materials from the treatment area.

P. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a decontamination station, and the decontamination station shall be capable of removing all hazardous materials from the treatment area.

Q. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a decontamination station, and the decontamination station shall be capable of removing all hazardous materials from the treatment area.

R. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a decontamination station, and the decontamination station shall be capable of removing all hazardous materials from the treatment area.

S. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a decontamination station, and the decontamination station shall be capable of removing all hazardous materials from the treatment area.

T. The treatment areas shall be equipped with a decontamination station, and the decontamination station shall be capable of removing all hazardous materials from the treatment area.