

Maria Viramontes, former CCC student and instructor, becomes the first Hispanic and woman Governing Board member in 1990.

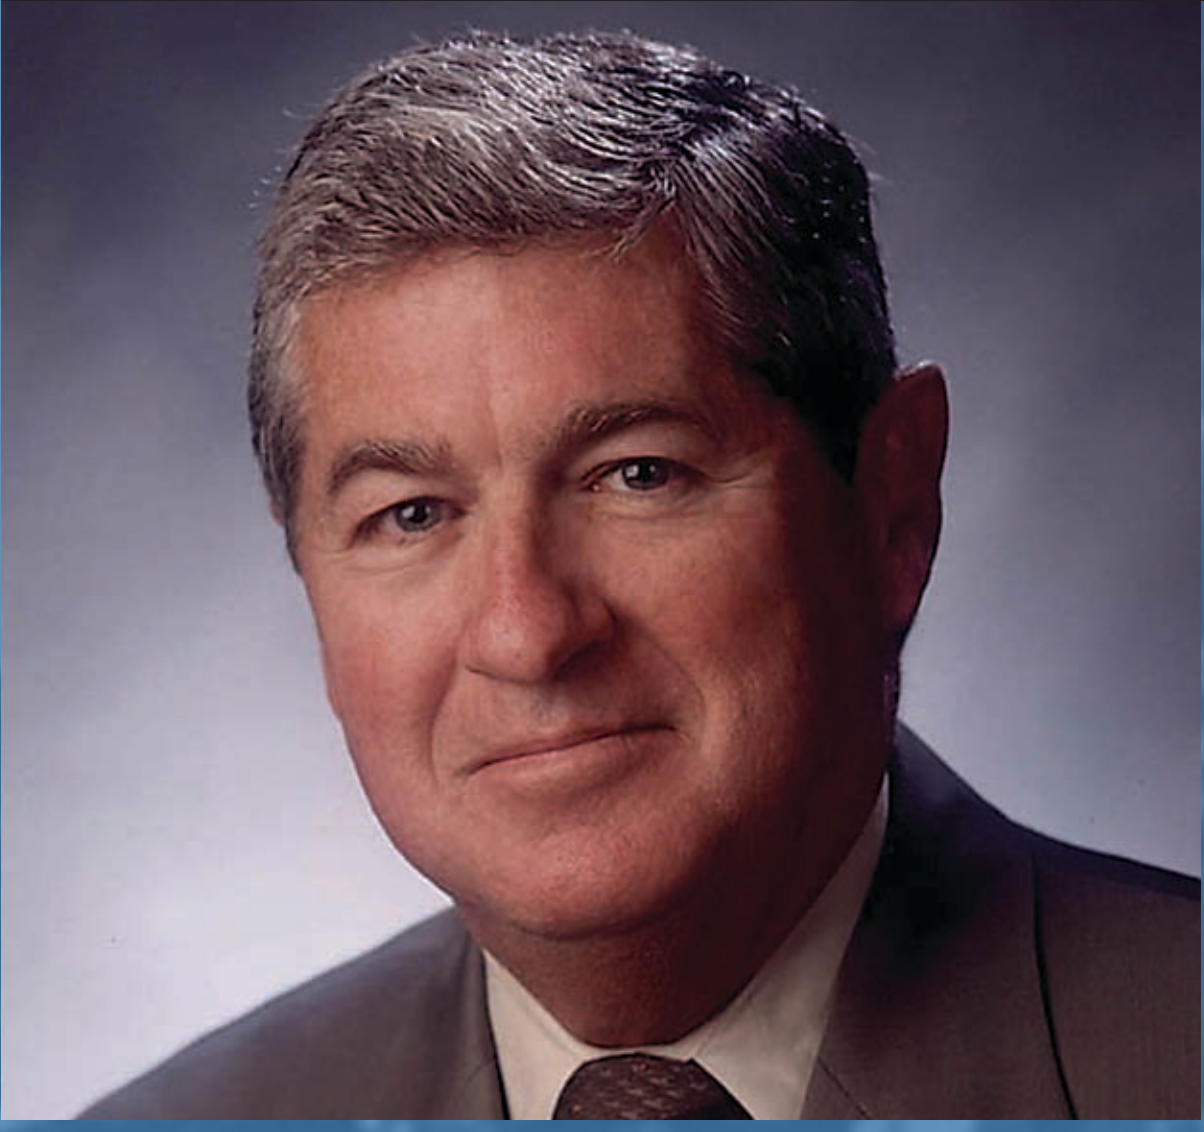

Stan Chin is selected as the District's first Asian American college president at LMC in 1991.

Robert Jensen is selected as the District chancellor in 1991.

Charles Spence is selected as the District chancellor in 1996.

LMC opens their new Music building in 1995.

1990

1999

Pathways to Success

LMC opened their first Brentwood Center in 1998, and moved to their current location in 2001.

DVC's Margaret Leshler Student Union building opens in 1998.

Helen Spencer Carr is selected as the District's first African American woman president at CCC in 1999.

CCC's The Advocate, CCC's award-winning college newspaper, launches its online version of the newspaper in 1999.

The Advocate
Accent Advocate

<http://www.accentadvocate.com/>

1990s

STATE GOVERNOR	George Deukmejian 1983-1991	Pete Wilson 1991-1999	Gray Davis 1999-2003
BOARD MEMBERS
Ward I	Maria Viramontes 1990-1994	David MacDiarmid 1994-2006
Ward II	William Moses 1973-1996	Kristine Chase 1996-2000
Ward III	Eugene Ross 1977-1998	Sheila Grilli 1998-Present
Ward IV	Lee Winters 1968-1994	John Nejedly 1994-Present
Ward V	Bill Corey 1988-1999	Greg Feere 1999-2000
CHANCELLOR	John Carhart 1984-1991	Robert Jensen 1991-1995	Jack Miyamoto Interim 1995
PRESIDENTS
CCC	Helen (Spencer) Carr 1999-2005
DVC	Phyllis Wiedman/Peterson 1984-1996		Mark Edelstein 1996-2006
LMC	Chester Case, Jr. 1985-1991	Stan Chin 1991-1995	Helen Spencer 1995-1996
			Raul Rodriguez 1996-2002