

CLAIMS AGAINST THE DISTRICT

Any claims against the District for money or damages, which are not governed by any other statutes or regulations, shall be presented and acted upon in accordance with Sections 900 et seq. and 910 of the California Government Code. Claims must be submitted to the Director of Risk Management at 500 Court Street, Martinez, California 94553, on the attached claim form (see Exhibit A) as required by Government Code 910.4.

1. Questions Relating to Filing Claims: Anyone inquiring as to the proper procedure to file a claim against the District should be referred to Government Code Sections 900 et. seq. In particular, Sections 910, 910.2 and 911.2 which deal with the contents of a claim and the timeliness of presentation. The District claim form (Exhibit A) shall be made available upon request.
2. Receipt of Claims against the District: Any authorized representative of the District may receive a claim on behalf of the District; however, the Director of Risk Management must be immediately informed of the claim. All original documents are to be date stamped and forwarded to the Director of Risk Management by the next working day. Claim forms cannot not be filed electronically.
3. Review of Claim: The Director of Risk Management will review the claim for compliance with Government Codes 910, Content of Claim; 910.2, Signatures, and 911.2, Time of Submission. The Director of Risk Management will notify the District's claim representative as appropriate.
4. Notice of Insufficiency of Claim: If the claim presented fails to comply with Government Code 910 et. seq., the Director of Risk Management or District's claim representative shall notify the claimant of such insufficiency (see Exhibit B) within twenty (20) days of the defects or omissions therein. No further action is required by the District unless the claim is amended or resubmitted.
5. Notice of Late Claim: If the claim was not presented within the time limits prescribed by Government Code 911.2, the Director of Risk Management or District's claim representative shall notify the claimant of such failure (see Exhibit C) within forty-five (45) days of the date the claim was presented.

The Governing Board may either grant or deny an application to present a late claim. Instances where the Governing Board is to grant the application are detailed in Government Code 911.6. If the application is granted, the claim shall be deemed to have been presented to the Governing Board upon the day that leave to present the claim is granted per Government Code 912.2. Denial of the application requires no further action on the claim (see Exhibit D).

6. Acceptance of Claim for Governing Board Action: If the claim has no exceptions after review, the Director of Risk Management will prepare a Governing Board report recommending rejection of the claim or acceptance/denial of the leave to present a late claim at the next regular meeting of the Board. Rejection or acceptance of the claim must be within forty-five (45) days of the date the claim was first presented to the District.
7. Notice of Governing Board Action: Immediately after the Governing Board meeting, the Director of Risk Management or District's claim representative shall notify the claimant of the Governing Board's action, by sending a certified Governing Board Report along with a notice of the Governing Board's action (see Exhibit E). Notice is to be given in accordance with Government Code 915.4.

Dear (Claimant):

The claim you presented to the Contra Costa Community College District on _____, 20__ is being returned because it was not presented within the time limits prescribed by law. See Sections 901 and 911.2 of the Government Code. Because the claim was not presented within the time allowed by law, no action was taken on the claim.

Your only recourse at this time is to apply without delay to the Contra Costa Community College district for leave to present a late claim. See Sections 911.4 and 912.2, inclusive, and Section 946.6 of the Government code. Under some circumstances, leave to present a late claim will be granted. See Section 911.6 of the Government Code.
